2022-2023 Dislocated Worker Verification

The information requested on this form is needed to process your application for financial aid for the 2022-2023 academic year.

On the 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you indicated that you, your spouse, or parent are a dislocated worker. Information provided on this form as well as an additional supporting statement is needed to determine whether the dislocated worker status applies. NOTE: If a person quits work, generally he/she is not considered a dislocated worker even if the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

Please check the appropriate box for whom was marked a dislocated worker at the time you filed the FAFSA.

- You, the student
 Your spouse
 Parent 1 (mother/father/stepmother/stepfather)
 Parent 2 (mother/father/stepmother/stepfather)

Review the following and indicate which best represents the status for the person indicated above.

In general, a person may be considered a dislocated worker if he or she:

- Is receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation; OR
- Has been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job; OR
- Was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster; OR
- Is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and has experienced a loss of employment because of relocating due to permanent change in duty station or is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and is a displaced homemaker (as described below); OR
- Is a displaced homemaker who previously provided unpaid services to the family (e.g., a stay-at-home mom/dad), is no longer supported by the spouse, is unemployed or underemployed, and having trouble finding or upgrading employment.

STATEMENT FROM DISLOCATED WORKER EXPLAINING CURRENT EMPLOYMENT STATUS (include attachment if necessary):

DISLOCATED WORKER STATUS DOES NOT APPLY

- Please indicate here if you or someone in your household is not considered a dislocated worker based on the definitions above and sign and submit this form to the financial aid office. A correction will be made to your FAFSA.

If your household income has been significantly impacted since 2019, you may be eligible for a special review to consider your current financial circumstances. For more information, please visit <http://financialaid.missouri.edu/receiving-aid/special-circumstances>.

STOP: Did you fully complete this form, including statement? We will return any incomplete/unsigned forms for correction.

NOTE: If we have reason to believe the information reported is inaccurate, we may require additional documentation.

By signing, I certify that all of the information reported is complete and correct. WARNING: if you purposely give false or misleading information you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.

Please note electronic signatures will not be accepted and forms will be returned.
